My dog Penny was acting very sick. She wouldn't eat and had a hard time walking. She has a tumor but we thought it was just a fatty lump.

The vet said she has cancer and it is now in her hips also. She was scheduled to be put to sleep but my Aunt suggested we try Healthy Pet Solutions herbal products because they worked so well on my Grandmother's dachshund.

We tried their Cell Solution, Blood Tonic Solution, and Centipedia. While it was a challenge getting her to take the supplements it was well worth it.

Within 3 weeks Penny was eating and walking. She even started to play again. She is still with us, thank you Healthy Pet Solutions.

Testimonial

Two years ago we adopted a border collie. She always barked and carried on whenever she was left alone at home. We did not want to use drugs to calm her down because of the potential negative side effects.

After a lot of internet research we discovered Healthy Pet Solutions and your Calm Pet product. Admittedly, we were skeptical. I am very pleased to report that your Calm Pet product has completely helped our dog cope with being home by herself.

Since we live in a Townhouse our neighbors have verified that her behavior is 'perfect'. She remains calm but alert and there are no adverse side effects. It has also been tremendously beneficial when we take her traveling. Within 30 minutes, her restlessness, shaking and panting cease and she is able to lie calmly. We are totally grateful that we found your products.

Infectious Anemia in Cats

Feline Infectious Anemia (FIA) is caused by a parasitic bacterium that attaches itself to the red blood cells of the host cat. The infected cat's immune system attacks the parasite with antibodies and kills the bacterium. The problem is that so many red blood cells are being destroyed through the act of killing the parasite that the cat becomes anemic. There is speculation that FIA can be passed from one cat to another by parasite insects that can carry blood (fleas, ticks, and mosquitoes) though a definitive cause has not been proven.
